School Event Info

August Campus Cleanup

Families, students, parishioners weed, pressure wash, paint, plant, and complete playground/school improvement projects.

September Open House

Open to families to walk through school, meet teachers, see classrooms and curriculum, get a syllabus and touch base on classroom expectations. Teachers will have a syllabus that outlines classroom management, communication home, homework, field trips, and projects for the school year.

October Fall Festival

School community carnival with games and prizes. There will also be visual arts showcase and cake design challenge. Judges will be anonymous, and prizes will be awarded.

December Christmas Program

Students share their musical talent with songs from the Christmas season as they act out the Nativity. Takes place at Queen of Angels Church.

January Catholic Schools Week

A dedicated week to celebrate Catholic education across the country. Each day highlights a different aspect of Catholic school history and life.

March Passion Play

Middle school students perform the Stations of the Cross.
